Sarabande

from keyboard suite in D minor (G 110)

GEORG FRIEDRICH HÄNDEL

The first system of the Sarabande consists of two staves. The treble staff begins with a series of chords, including a D minor triad, a D minor dyad, and a D minor triad with a sharp F. The bass staff features a steady eighth-note accompaniment, starting with a D in the bass and moving through a descending sequence of notes: C, B, A, G, F, E, D.

The second system continues the piece. The treble staff has a melodic line with some grace notes and rests. The bass staff continues the eighth-note accompaniment, with some notes beamed together.

The third system shows the treble staff with a more active melodic line, including sixteenth-note passages. The bass staff continues the accompaniment, with some notes beamed together.

The fourth system features a treble staff with a melodic line that includes a sixteenth-note run. The bass staff continues the accompaniment, with some notes beamed together.

The fifth system shows the treble staff with a series of chords, some of which are beamed together. The bass staff continues the accompaniment, with some notes beamed together.

The sixth system concludes the piece. The treble staff has a melodic line with some grace notes and rests. The bass staff continues the accompaniment, with some notes beamed together.
